

HS128 A - Leitura Dirigida para Antropologia Social II

A “virada ontológica” e a etnologia sul-americana

O objetivo desta disciplina é percorrer alguns debates em torno da chamada “virada ontológica” na antropologia a partir de suas interfaces com questões etnográficas e analíticas da etnologia sul-americana. O curso será baseado principalmente na leitura de monografias, com o intuito de discutir três temas-chave: as transformações em torno das noções de vida, agência e comunicação provocadas por uma “antropologia além do humano”; os deslocamentos da linguagem no campo da antropologia, bem como os problemas levantados pelas diversas formas de tradução que constituem o trabalho etnográfico; e, por fim, as dimensões políticas da constituição de mundos.
